Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure

This policy is based on The College of Public Employment (C. O P.E.) providing appropriate mechanisms and services for participants to have complaints and appeals addressed efficiently, effectively and in a confidential manner.

1. PURPOSE:

1.1 This policy is based on C. O P.E.) providing appropriate mechanisms and services for participants to have complaints and appeals addressed efficiently, effectively and in a confidential manner. A copy of this Policy and Procedure is also available on the C. O P.E. website www.public.edu.au

2. SCOPE:

2.1 This policy applies to all C. O P.E. staff members involved in the appeals process and all participants who make an appeal or wish to lodge a complaint against C. O P.E..

2.2 C. O P.E. is committed to providing an effective, efficient, timely, fair and confidential complaints and appeals handling procedure for all participants.

2.3 This policy is made available to participants at pre-enrolment and enrolment.

2.4 This policy relates to both Academic Matters and Non-Academic Matters; Academic Matters relate to participant academic progress, assessment, curriculum, the quality of course delivery, academic achievement in a course and awards in a course. Examples include: results of review of remark against assessment results, exclusion from study, results of credit transfer or RPL applications, findings of allegations of cheating; quality of course delivery. Non-Academic Matters include sexual harassment, racial or sexual discrimination, unfair treatment, physical or verbal abuse, behavioural issues, breach of personal information, concerns about campus facilities, environment, health and safety or equipment.

2.5 This Policy and Procedure shall apply over all C. O P.E. operational sites, where C. O P.E. is registered to deliver training and assessment as a Registered Training Organisation for both accredited and non-accredited training programs. This Policy and Procedure shall apply to all employees, participants and those seeking to enrol with C. O P.E..

3. POLICY:

3.1 C. O P.E. is committed to the continuous improvement of its services for staff and participants and aims to provide adequate and easily activated procedures to deal with complaints. C. O P.E. will treat complaints seriously and ensure that all processes are clear, confidential and fair to all parties.

3.2 During the complaints and appeals process, C. O P.E. will maintain the participant's enrolment.

3.3 If a participant lodges a formal complaint or appeal, the process for resolving the matter will commence within ten (10) business days.

3.4 Participants are entitled to access the complaints and appeals procedures set out in this policy. The complainant and respondent will not be victimised or discriminated against at any stage of the process. When making a complaint, participants have a right to:

- i. be present or make written presentation to any committee convened to hear the complaint;
- ii. be accompanied and assisted by a third party (such as a family member, friend, counsellor or other professional support person) at any or each stage of the process;
- iii. receive and respond to any documentation, as appropriate, that is submitted in connection with a complaint;
- iv. have a complaint treated confidentially with details only disclosed to staff involved in the complaint resolution process.
- v. details will only be disclosed to third parties when C. O P.E. has reasonable grounds to believe that failure to disclose the information will cause a threat to the life or health of any person, or the use is authorised by law
- vi. At all stages of the process, reasons and a full explanation in writing for decisions and actions taken as part of the procedures must be given if so requested by the complainant and/or respondent;

3.7 C. O P.E. will provide the participant with a written statement on the outcome including details of the outcome.

3.8 If the participant is not satisfied with the result or conduct of the internal complaint handling and appeals process, the participant may initiate an external appeal. External appeals must be initiated within Ten (10) business days of the conclusion of the internal appeal and the participant must notify C. O P.E.'s CEO that they are initiating an external appeal.

3.9 If the internal or external complaint handling or appeal process results in a decision that supports the participant, C. O P.E. will immediately implement any decision and/or corrective and preventative action required and advise the participant of the outcome.

4. PROCEDURE

4.1 Stage One (Verbal) In the first instance, complaints should be discussed with the person/people involved. If this is impractical, complainants should communicate with one of the staff listed below. The verbal complaint or appeal will be dealt with free of charge and within a reasonable timeframe, normally within ten (10) business days of receipt of the complaint. Participants should email admin@qualitytraining.com.au and address their communication to one of the following staff members: i. Managing Director ii. Operations Director iii. Vocational Education Manager iv. Compliance Officer Participants have three (3) options for proceeding:

Policy

- i. Take no further action;
- ii. Make comments or suggestions
- iii. Make a written complaint or appeal in accordance with Stage two.

4.2 Stage 2 (Written) If unsatisfied with the response to the complaint or the time taken to resolve the matter is Stage One, the complainant may complete C. O P.E. Complaints and Appeals Forms, available online at www.lka.net.au or from head office and forward it the CEO, who will discuss the complaint with the relevant C. O P.E. staff member. The written complaint or appeal will be dealt with free of charge and within a reasonable timeframe, normally within ten (10) business days of receipt of the complaint. Once a decision has been reached, the participant will be notified of this decision in writing. Staff handling the complaint will ensure they:

- i. Listen and understand the nature of the complaint;
- ii. Explore all the options and possible implications for resolving the issue with the complainant;
- iii. Avoid any behaviour that might reasonably be interpreted as interrogative or judgemental;
- iv. Endeavour to find a resolution.

Participants then have three (3) options for proceeding:

- i. Take no further action;
- ii. Make comments or suggestions;
- iii. Activate the external appeals process in accordance with Stage three.

4.3 Stage 3 (External) If unsatisfied with the response to the written complaint or the time taken to resolve the matter, the complainant may request that the matter be dealt with through an external dispute resolution process. This external appeal must commence within 10 business days of the conclusion of the internal appeals process. The complainant may appoint an external agency of their choice or access one of the options as listed below. The complainant will be responsible for any associated costs for the external agencies' services.
